

GEP NAMED TO TOP LIST OF GLOBAL PROCUREMENT OUTSOURCING PROVIDERS BY INFORMATION SERVICES GROUP

Clark, NJ – August 1, 2014 – GEP, a leading provider of procurement and supply chain solutions to Fortune 500 and Global 2000 enterprises worldwide, today announced it has been named a Top 10 Procurement Outsourcing Service Provider by Information Services Group (ISG), a leading technology insights, market intelligence and advisory services company.

Clark, NJ-based GEP was among the leading providers in the procurement outsourcing services category on a global basis, based on annual contract value (ACV) won over the last 12 months, according to the ISG Global Outsourcing Index. Now in its 47th consecutive quarter, the ISG Outsourcing Index provides an independent quarterly review of the latest sourcing industry data and trends for enterprises, service providers, analysts and the media.

“GEP is increasingly recognized not just as an industry leader, but a pace setter,” said Al Girardi, VP of marketing and CMO at GEP. “Innovation, deep expertise and a fierce commitment to extraordinary results have driven both high client satisfaction and strong customer acquisition. Today, we serve a burgeoning roster of global market leaders across multiple industries – manufacturing, technology, pharma, health care and life sciences, financial services, consumer goods and services, chemicals, energy and utilities, travel & hospitality, government and nonprofit, among others.”

“For more than a decade, the ISG Outsourcing Index has been the authoritative source for marketplace intelligence related to outsourcing transaction structures and terms, industry adoption, geographic prevalence and service provider performance,” said Paul Reynolds, chief research officer of ISG. “GEP continues to establish itself as a leading and growing player in the global market for procurement outsourcing services, based on its volume of business in relation to other industry providers.”
